1 Cintron that she try to remain, correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay, and do you recall Lieutenant Cintron
4 complaining about the treatment that she had
5 received from Deputy Commissioner Sullivan?

6 A No.

7 Q Do you recall Lieutenant Cintron saying
8 that she felt as though she was in a hostile work
9 environment?

10 A No.

11 Q Do you recall Lieutenant Cintron
12 complaining about the work conditions at PAL?

13 A No, she didn't complain about that to me.

14 Q Then what is it that you do recall about
15 Lieutenant Cintron's complaints?

16 A What I recall about the conversation? Is
17 that what you are referring to when I was speaking
18 with her after the exit interview?

19 Q Yes, ma'am.

20 A That she was very stressed out and her
21 doctor said it was best for her not to be in the
22 department, but we did not talk about her specifics
23 about what was going on with her and her job, no.

24 Q At any point have you discussed specifics
25 concerning her treatment or the way that she felt
